

ITECHLAW COPYRIGHT POLICY

1. License Grant

Each User grants ITechLaw a license to use the content supplied by each such User for the purposes of disclosure on the ITechLaw website.

This license includes, inter alia, the right for ITechLaw to reproduce, represent, adapt, translate, digitize, use for advertising purposes, whether commercial or non-commercial, to sublicense or to transfer the content concerning each User (including information, pictures, descriptions, search criteria, etc.) over all or part of the Services and/or in any mailings of ITechLaw and in general through any electronic communication media (email, SMS, MMS, WAP, Internet, CD Rom or DVD).

Each User expressly authorizes ITechLaw to modify said content in order to conform to the interface or display requirements of the Services or of other communications media as set forth above, and/or to render them compatible with its technical performance or media format in question. These rights are granted throughout the world and for the entire term of this Agreement. The User is prohibited from copying, reproducing or otherwise using the content relating to other Users of ITechLaw for any purpose other than for those purposes strictly related to use of the ITechLaw services for personal purposes.

2. Digital Millennium Copyright Act

Pursuant to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. sec. 512, ITechLaw has designated an agent to receive notices of claimed copyright infringement. If you believe in good faith that your work has been copied in a way that constitutes copyright infringement, please provide ITechLaw' Copyright Agent the following information:

1. An electronic or physical signature of the person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of the copyright interest;
2. A description of the copyrighted work that you claim has been infringed;
3. A description of where the material that you claim is infringing is located on the Site;
4. Your address, telephone number, and e-mail address;
5. A statement by you that you have a good faith belief that the disputed use is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law; and
6. A statement by you, made under penalty of perjury, that the above information in your notice is accurate and that you are the copyright owner or authorized to act on the copyright owner's behalf.

ITechLaw's headquarters for Notice of claims of copyright infringement can be reached as follows: by e-mail at office@itechlaw.org or by mail at:

ITechLaw Association
401 Edgewater Place, Suite 600
Wakefield, MA 01880
USA

Upon receipt of the written notification containing the information as outlined in 1 through 6 above:

1. ITechLaw may remove or disable access to the material that is alleged to be infringing;
2. ITechLaw may forward the written notification to such alleged infringer; and
3. ITechLaw may take reasonable steps to promptly notify the alleged infringer that it has removed or disabled access to the material.

A. Counter-Notification:

If the alleged infringer believes that a notice of copyright infringement has been wrongly filed against it and it would like to submit a counter-notification, it may file a Counter-Notification in Response to Claim of Copyright Infringement with ITechLaw's headquarters.

To be effective, a Counter-Notification must be a written communication provided to the ITechLaw's headquarters for Notice that includes the following information:

1. A physical or electronic signature of the alleged infringer;
2. Identification of the material that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the material appeared before it was removed or access to it was disabled;
3. A statement under penalty of perjury that the alleged infringer has a good faith belief that the material was removed or disabled as a result of a mistake or misidentification of the material to be removed or disabled; and
4. The alleged infringer's name, address, and telephone number, and a statement that the alleged infringer consents to the jurisdiction of Federal District Court for the judicial district in which the address is located, or if the alleged infringer's address is outside of the United States, for any judicial district in which ITechLaw may be found, and that the alleged infringer will accept service of process from the person who provided notification or an agent of such person.

Upon receipt of a Counter-Notification containing the information as outlined in 1 through 4 above:

1. ITechLaw may promptly provide you with a copy of the Counter-Notification;
2. ITechLaw may inform you that it will replace the removed material or cease disabling access to it within ten (10) business days; and
3. ITechLaw may replace the removed material or cease disabling access to the material within ten (10) to fourteen (14) business days following receipt of the Counter-Notification, provided ITechLaw's headquarters for Notice has not received notice from you that an action has been filed seeking a court order to restrain Subscriber from engaging in infringing activity relating to the material on ITechLaw's network or system.

You may want to seek the advice of independent legal counsel before filing a notification or counter-notification.

B. Notice and Procedure for Making Complaints Regarding Content

To notify ITechLaw of Content that infringes your rights (other than copyright violations in which case please click here) or is otherwise unlawful ("Specified Content"), you must send a notice to the ITechLaw headquarters by mail, e-mail, or fax, and provide the following information:

- Your name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address;
- A description of the Specified Content that your claim either infringes your rights or is otherwise unlawful, specifying which parts of it you believe infringe your rights, or are unlawful, and which parts you believe should be removed;
- A description of the exact location of the Specified Content on the Web Site;
- (In the event you believe that the Specified Content infringes your rights): A statement specifying in detail the rights you assert, and why the Specified Content infringes them;
- (In the event you believe that the Specified Content is otherwise unlawful): A statement specifying in detail which laws you believe are being breached, and why the Specified Content does so;
- A statement by you, made under penalty of perjury, that the above information in your notice is accurate and that you are damaged by the Specified Content or authorized to act on such person's behalf; and
- Your electronic or physical signature (as appropriate).

When we receive a notice that complies with the above requirements, we will evaluate the information you provided (including, if appropriate, forwarding the notice to, or otherwise contacting the source of the Specified Content), and if appropriate in our judgment, remove or disable access to the Specified Content. In such case, we may notify the source of the Specified Content of your complaint and our action taken. In some cases, if the source of the Specified Content provides us with information indicating that the Specified Content has been removed wrongly, we may reinstate the Specified Content. Our take-down and re-instatement procedures are and remain at our sole discretion.

You may want to seek the advice of independent legal counsel before filing a notice or responding to a notice filed by someone else.

ITechLaw Content Complaint Manager

Contact information for ITechLaw's headquarters is as follows:

E-Mail: office@itechlaw.org

Fax: 1-781-224-1239

Mail:

ITechLaw Association
401 Edgewater Place, Suite 600
Wakefield, MA 01880
USA