International Technology Law Association
European Conference
November 6-7, 2006
Municipal House, Prague

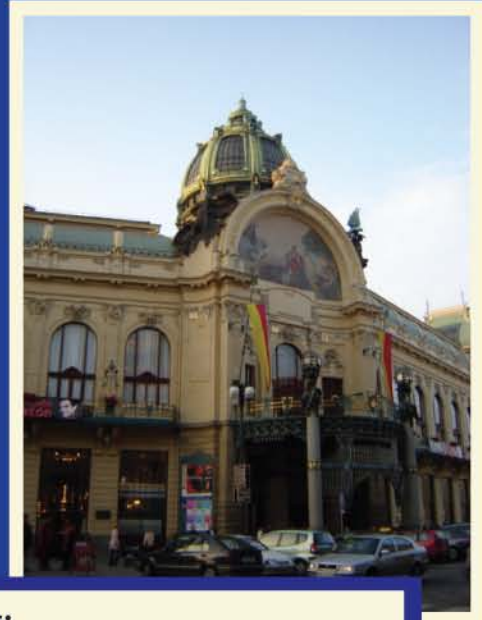

DETAILS:

This year ITechLaw will be visiting the beautiful and fascinating capital of the Czech Republic, Prague, for its European Conference.

It is also ITechLaw's first appearance in the EU with its new name and brand as we are the former Computer Law Association. Our new name, International Technology Law Association, makes it very clear the importance of our international members, global activities and expanded focus.

The Conference is being held at the famous Municipal House, Obecní dům, in the center of the old town.

This is one of Prague's most prominent buildings of the Prague Art Nouveau style. The Marriott Prague and Renaissance Hotels are a short block away from the conference venue.
